big and mean and ug-ly, he's a ve-ry wick-ed man, But I'm gon-na get him

This system features a treble and bass staff in D major. The treble staff has a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. It contains a melody with eighth and quarter notes, accented by a piano accompaniment of chords. Chords D and E are marked above the staff. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

Chorus
if I can, I'm gon - na get him if I can! Well,

This system continues the melody from the first system. The treble staff shows a melodic phrase with a repeat sign. The bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment. The word 'Chorus' is written above the treble staff.

who's gon-na win, tell me, how's it gon-na be? Is it go-ing be him, — or is it

This system introduces a new melodic line in the treble staff, marked with chords A, D, and E. The bass staff continues with a consistent accompaniment pattern.

gon-na be me? I'm not ve-ry tall and I'm not ve - ry wide, But

This system continues the melody with a new phrase, marked with chords A and D. The bass staff maintains the accompaniment.

I've got the fire of the Lord in - side! I've got the fire of the

This system concludes the page with a final melodic phrase, marked with chords E and A. The bass staff continues with the accompaniment.

Verse 3
