

DANIEL

Daniel Ch. 1-6 (especially Ch. 6)

Ian White

Intro

B7 Em C G B7 Em D C C/D

D G Dsus7 D7

1. When Dan-iel was a young man, he—

C/D D7 Dsus7 D7

— was strong and hand-some, in - tel - li - ent and friend - ly and brave.—

G6 G Dsus7 D7 C/D D7

— He — was ve - ry hap-py liv - ing in his home-land till

Dsus7 D7 G6 G B7 Em

peo-ple came and took him a-way.— Dan - iel you'll be brave, Daniel you'll be brave, you've been ta-ken far a-way and made a slave, Daniel you'll be-lieve, Dan - iel you'll be-lieve, your God is near so have no fear, for Dan-iel your heart is free.

2. When Your God lives.

2. When Daniel was an old man
The king had shown him favour
But all around were envious men.
One day they caught him praying
When it was forbidden
And threw him in the lion's den.

Oh Daniel's in the den, Daniel's in the den,
It's nearly time for bed, and the lions need fed.
Daniel's in the den, Daniel's in the den,
But the people and the king
Have forgotten one thing
That Daniel, he's God's friend.

3. It's early in the morning,
The king is looking worried,
He's running to the lion's den
Then Daniel says 'Good morning!
The lion hasn't torn me,
You see my God has saved me again.'

Oh Daniel you're alive, Daniel you're alive,
It's a miracle that you haven't died,
Daniel please forgive, Daniel please forgive,
We'll tell every man
Living in this land,
That Daniel, your God lives!