

ANT

Proverbs 3 vs 7-8
Proverbs 30 v 25, Romans 12 v 11

Ian White

C To repeat To continue Verse C

Ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant. ant, ant, ant. 1. He's run-ning down the pave-ment as quick-ly as can be, with a piece of ho-ney sand-wich that used to be-long to me! His legs are ve-ry ti-ny, but look at how they go. And if you try to stop him he might bite you on the toe. Look at the ant. Ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant. Look at the ant. Ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant. He's ve - ry, ve - ry bu - sy, he does-n't stop to slack and look at the size of the crumb that's on his back! I won - der where he's go - ing, he's climb - ing down a hole, he's gone to feed the ba-by ants nest-ing down be-low. Look at the ant. Ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant. Look at the ant. Ant, ant, ant, ant, ant, ant. So if you're feel-ing la-zy and won't get out of bed, re - mem-ber the ways of the lit-tle ant in-stead. He does - n't stop to grum - ble, he's al - ways full of vim, and that's why the Bi - blesays that we should look to him.

G7 3

C G7

C 3 3

C

G7

C

G7 C

F C

F G C Am D G

F C F G C

G7 C