

Psalm 49: No Man Can Redeem

Intro. and interlude

Ian White

Am7 Em C Am7 D E

Verse

Am7 Em C Am7

I. No man can re - deem the life of an - o - ther or give to

D G Am7 Em

God a ran - som for him. The ran - som — for a life is

C Am7 D

cost - ly, no pay - ment is e - ver e - nough that he should live and ne - ver see de - cay.

G

Am7 Em C Am7

2. For all can see that wise men — pe - rish and fools will die leav - ing rich - es be - hind.

D G

Am7 Em C Am7

Their tombs will for - e - ver — be their — hou - ses. Though they had named lands for them - selves, man des - pite his wealth will not en -

D

G Am7 Em

dure. 3. This is the fate of those who —

C Am7 D 3 3 G

trust them-selves and of their fol - low-ers who ap-prove what they say.

Am7 Em C Am7 3

But God, the Lord, He will re - deem my soul, He will lift

D 3 G D.C.

me up from the grave, and He will sure-ly take me to Him - self.