

PSALM 90

From everlasting to everlasting

Ian White

Intro. A

From ev-er-last - ing to ev-er-last - ing,

D

from ev-er-last - ing to ev-er-last - ing,

A

from ev-er-last - ing to ev-er-last - ing,

F#m

from ev-er-last - ing to ev-er-last - ing,

F E A

from ev-er-last - ing You are God.

To repeat To continue

Verse

1. Lord, You— have been our dwell-ing place through-out all gen-er - a-tions, be - fore the moun - tains were— born, or You brought forth— the earth, and the world. You turn men back to dust, say-ing "re-turn—— to dust O sons of men". A thous-and years in Your— sight are

Chorus

F E A

like a day— gone by— or a watch in the night. From ev-er-

A F#m Fmaj 7 E

last - ing to ev - er - last - ing, You are

A F#m

God. From ev - er - last - ing to ev - er - last - ing,

Fmaj 7 E A (.) Fine D.S.

You are God. 2. You sweep all men a -

2. You sweep all men away in the sleep of death
Like new grass of the morning,
Though it springs up so new,
By evening it is dry and withered away.
The length of all our days may be eighty years
They quickly pass away
Teach us to number our days,
So we may gain the heart of the wise.

3. Relent, O Lord, how long, how long will it be?
Have compassion on Your servants,
Satisfy us today,
With Your unfailing love, so we may sing for joy.
And may the favour of the Lord our God
Always rest upon us,
And bless the works of our hands
Establish all the works of our hands.